Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Tuesday 14 Dec 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Wet in the northwest, mostly dry elsewhere.

This Evening and Tonight:
Windy with rain affecting western and northern Scotland, before moving southwards later to allow clearer skies into the far northwest. Rather cloudy and mild elsewhere with a little drizzle in places, though turning clearer and chilly across some central parts.

Wednesday:
Rain clearing southwards but persisting across southern Scotland, Northern Ireland and northwest England. Brighter across the rest of Scotland. Milder and cloudier further south, though some sunshine east of hills.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Rain clearing far north Thursday, with winds easing here. Otherwise largely cloudy but mostly dry with light winds. Patchy mist and fog for some overnight. Mild at first, gradually cooling.
